

Ann Griffiths

AUTHOR / SPEAKER / MENTOR-COACH

Ann Griffiths is an author and speaker with extensive leadership, mentoring, and coaching experience in business and ministry. She is also co-founder of Fingerprint Ministries.

Her inspiring books reflect her passion to make an eternal difference for generations, while her calm, focused demeanor motivates others to use their God-given abilities to be a godly influence in their own circles of influence.

Ann treasures time with her friends and expanding family. She also serves as editor of her church's magazine and enjoys playing percussion/drums with community orchestras and worship teams.

ENDORSEMENTS

Thanks for unpacking the myth about mentoring and giving it new life and meaning for our women. You've impacted my life and given me courage to put one step in front of another.

Cynthia, Author & Attendee

Ann is a confident speaker who puts her audience at ease immediately with her warmth and sense of humor. Her background in the corporate world, as well as in the faith community, gives her a perspective and insight that is extremely valuable. Whether it's an all-day event like ours, a weekend retreat, or an evening gathering, I highly recommend this wonderful speaker.

Vicki, Women's Ministries Pastor
